

RALLY III SPORTS COMMUNICATIONS

Radio

Television

Print

STRONGMAN TO ROCK NORTH CAROLINA

American Strongman Corporation (ASC) will decide it National Champion MAY 25 & 26

For Immediate release
May 15, 2007

Contact: Dione Wessels
314-565-5970
Mike Johnston
803-414-7492

The road to the IFSA World Championship passes a major mile marker at the ASC Nationals America's Strongest man - scheduled for Memorial Day weekend on Friday May 25th and Saturday May 26th at the Food Lion 600 Festival in Uptown Charlotte.

The action will begin on Friday from 4:30 PM-8:00 PM and conclude on Saturday from 4:30- 8:00 PM. Come see up to 20 of America's top pro strongmen compete in your favorite events as seen on ESPN and the VERSUS network. The events will include the Atlas Stones, engine block load, tire deadlift, the log press, and many more.

For more than 25 years, the 600 Festival Association has been commemorating the May races at Lowe's Motor Speedway with spectacular family-oriented events that personify the tremendous growth of motor sports

Celebrating its 13th year, Food Lion Speed Street transforms the streets of Uptown Charlotte into a showcase of motor sports with non-stop entertainment on three stages, appearances by top Nextel Cup Drivers, dynamic exhibits for all ages and an amazing assembly of NASCAR show cars and simulators.

Go to <http://www.600festival.com> for more information.

America's top strongmen including former champion Van Hatfield, defending champion Steve MacDonald plus top contenders Chad Coy, Brian Shaw, Travis Ortmayer, Derek Poundstone, Jon Andersen, and Nick Best will vie for the coveted crown.

The top six athletes will advance to the World Championships to be held later this year. Projected attendance for NASCAR's Coca Cola 600 is over 400,000. ASC is proud to be part this great weekend in the Charlotte area.

Live bands, activities, and in your face action are waiting for fans from all over America. Don't miss the crowning of America's Strongest Man 2007.

The Lineup

Derek Poundstone
Van Hatfield
Nick Best
Jon Andersen
Tom McClure
Eric Hammer
Brian Shaw
Gerard Benderoth
Brad Dunn

Travis Ortmayer
Cory St. Clair
Grant Higa
Chad Coy
Matt Wanatt
Pete Kondradt
Nick Brugal
Matt Parks

